

PORTUGAL SQUIRMS.

England and Germany Indifferent to Her Rights in Africa.

Unwritten Points in the Agreement of the Two Powers.

Legation Against Life Insurance of Children in England.—Postmaster-General Baikes and the Telegraph Operators—The Chalmers in Europe—Arms for the Insurgents in Crete—Germany and the McKinley Bill—The Execution of Maj. Panitzas—Prince Ferdinand Endorsed by His Cabinet—Foreign News.

LONDON, July 1.—One of the unwritten points in the agreement between England and Germany is that Portugal is to be ground between the millstones of the two empires, so as to be a possession of no account. The little kingdom is regarded as having no rights that the great powers are bound to respect, and the partition of Africa is made with entire indifference to Portuguese rights and pretensions. Portugal is powerless to object and her cause is not helped by the fact that her colonial officers have involved themselves in a war with the natives of the Kingdom of Bebe. This kingdom is ruled by a family of partly European blood, a Magyar adventurer having many years ago married the daughter of the King of Bebe, and raised several children, whom were accepted as members of the ruling family.

THE AFRICAN-GERMAN AGREEMENT.
BERLIN, July 1.—The remarks recently made by Maj. Wissmann in connection with the Anglo-German negotiations are said to give evidence of a secret disappointment, which is, however, subordinated by a determination to view the position in the most favorable light. Wissmann is also said to be convinced that the Government had other reasons, which it cannot at present make known, for allowing such liberal terms to Great Britain.

CAPRIVI'S POSITION.
Chancellor Otto Caprivi has permitted a friend to state that, while the Minister is not an enthusiast on colonial affairs, he had accepted his portfolio fully agreeing that Germany having once launched into colonial enterprises must maintain a forward movement. The Chancellor is really quoted as saying: "After the agreement with England, it will be my ambition that East Africa shall become something."

Murder for Insurance Money.
LONDON, July 1.—A select committee of the House of Lords is considering the bill introduced by the Bishop of Peterborough, to prevent the murder of children for the sake of insurance money. The bill provides that the money in all cases of death of children insured shall be paid only to the undertaker, and no surplus to the parents or other parties. This is to prevent parents from deriving any profit from the death of a child. About 600,000 children are insured in Great Britain every year and it is believed that many of these are permitted to die from criminal neglect if not directly murdered in order to gain the insurance.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL BAIKES IN TROUBLE.
The harassment of Postmaster-General Baikes is increasing and he is resorting to methods which are regarded as undignified. The character of misrepresentation, not to say downright falsehood, to maintain his position. The telegraphers, whose unhappy lot has moved them to strain efforts to induce Mr. Baikes to ameliorate their condition, have resorted to a strike. The basis of the proposed strike embodied in a list of grievances, but the principal one is that of their being compelled to work overtime without pay. In reply to a question in the House of Commons regarding the grievances of the telegraphers, Mr. Baikes has made the statement that overtime work is not compulsory, but is also to be performed gratuitously under the penalty of dismissal on the ground of insubordination. The telegraphers are assured of a full measure of popular sympathy in their movement and will doubtless obtain the redress they seek.

THE POLICE.
The police are quiescent in obedience to the counsel of their leaders to trust to the sense of justice of the Government to right their wrongs. They have by no means abandoned their purpose, however, and the outbreak of a strike which they are determined to force is merely contingent upon the refusal of the Government to meet their demands half way.

THE RACES.
The race for the July stakes at the Newmarket first July meeting to-day was won by Baron de Rothschild's very handsome mare, CAPT. KANE'S APPRENTICE.

Capt. Henry C. Kane has been appointed to the command of Her Majesty's armored vessel, the Infatigable, which was conspicuous in the bombardment of Alexandria.

HON. WILLIAM CRAWFORD DEAD.
The Hon. William Crawford, member of the House of Commons for the middle division of Durham, is dead.

THE STORM KING'S LONG VOYAGE.
A telegram has been received here announcing that the life-boat Storm King, which sailed from here to Cape Town and from the latter place to Albany, West Australia, has completed the long voyage in safety. She arrived at Albany to-day.

The Newfoundland Fishery Troubles.
OTTAWA, Ontario, July 1.—John Wilnot, Dominion Superintendent of Fish Culture, has just arrived from Newfoundland. On being asked "What is the feeling in Newfoundland over the French treaty?" Mr. Wilnot said: "There is anxiety on the part of some people, but there is none of the impetuous feeling which is claimed to exist by certain newspapers. From what I heard there, the Newfoundland Government do not anticipate much difficulty in getting their case properly considered in spite of statements which have appeared in American papers, in discussing the subject the islanders say they do not believe that Great Britain will give them in the end, but that their rights will be upheld. They feel that when their representatives appear before the British Government, the matter will be satisfactorily arranged. Newfoundland considered that the French were encroaching on their territory, for which they have grounds whatever they are of the opinion that under the original treaty the French had no right to encroach on the position of property. That they regard as an invasion altogether."

"Has there been any real conflict?" Mr. Wilnot was asked.

There. When I got to Halifax I read in the papers an account of some males. When I was on the island the French and English were carrying on their vocations quietly. Many people seem to think the French authorities are pressing the question more for the sake of obtaining a more favorable arrangement or concession from the English, in another direction than for the actual benefit that will accrue to themselves from the fishery. The fishery has enormously decreased in value during the last two or three years and the islanders think the French Government are pushing their claims for the purpose of making better terms elsewhere with the British Government. Cod fishing on the banks is said to be more favorable this year than along the coast. The weather has been extremely cold and backward, and a number of icebergs surrounding the island prevented fishing from being commenced as early as usual. Outside the harbor of St. John there were eight or ten icebergs, quite within view, some of them not half a mile from the harbor. The icebergs, and this will make it cold at that part of the coast nearly all summer."

German Publishers Heavily Fined.
BERLIN, July 1.—In the High Court at Leipzig yesterday three publishers were fined 20 marks each for publishing obscene books. The defendants contended that their stories were no more objectionable than those of Zola, but the plea was deemed insufficient to exculpate them from the charges against them.

EMPEROR WILLIAM AND KING CHRISTIAN.
Emperor William has conferred the order of the Black Eagle upon King Christian of Denmark.

THE MCKINLEY BILL.
A semi-official denial is made here on the statement published in yesterday evening's papers to the effect that the powers of continental Europe, headed by Germany, had agreed to establish mutual repressive tariffs against American imports if the McKinley bill were pending before the American Congress. The statement has been taken on steps to counteract any positive injury to her American trade by the enactment of the McKinley bill.

THE MUNICH ART EXHIBITION.
MUNICH, July 1.—The Munich Art Exhibition was opened to-day in the presence of Prince Louispold, the Regent and the members of the royal family.

THE SAMOAN BILL.
The bill providing for Germany's share of the cost of maintaining the judiciary in Samoa is to be read a second time in the Reichstag to-day.

An Encyclical Letter.
ROME, July 1.—It is announced that the Pope is preparing an encyclical letter on the present state of Eastern politics and religious life, which will be issued within a few days.

THE DIOCESE OF DALLAS, TEX.
The Vatican has approved the proposal of the New Orleans Episcopate to create a new diocese to be known as the Diocese of Dallas, Tex. Mr. Ventagur has been appointed Bishop at Brownsville, Tex.

THE CORRIGAN-BURKE AFFAIR.
LONDON, July 1.—The Herald's Rome correspondent says: "The Congregation of the Propaganda has decided the Corrigan-Burke affair. The decision is a complete secret until the Papal sanction is obtained."

The Cholera in Europe.
PARIS, July 1.—The cholera which has appeared at Cuxen and at Narbonne is pronounced to be of the same kind as the Asiatic type. Both towns are rigidly quarantined. The one death from the disease which occurred at Cuxen Sunday was followed by several yesterday, and the number of new cases at Narbonne is rapidly increasing.

LEISURE.
LONDON, July 1.—It is rumored that several cases of a disease believed to be cholera have appeared near Oporto.

The Execution of Panitzas.
SOFIA, July 1.—The consent of Prince Ferdinand to the execution of Maj. Panitzas was only obtained after his Cabinet had threatened to resign. Mms. Panitzas was not informed of the decision of the court, the first intimation which she received being the announcement of her husband's execution. Princess Clementine was one of those who interceded for mercy to the condemned man.

Port Louis Configuration.
LONDON, July 1.—A dispatch from Port Louis, Guadeloupe, received here to-day, states that the principal buildings in that place have been destroyed by fire. The total of the losses is $200,000. Many of the inhabitants lost all their effects by the conflagration and are entirely destitute.

A Family Poisoned.
DUBLIN, July 1.—The wife and four children of Mr. James O'Connor of the editorial staff of United Ireland were fatally poisoned at Sea Point near Dublin, as a consequence of eating stewed mussels. Another child and a servant, who were also poisoned, are slowly recovering.

Fed to Bears.
VIENNA, July 1.—The owners of a traveling show which included in its animals a number of bears have been arrested at Treutchen on the charge of murdering a tramp and throwing his body to the bears and they were devoured it.

Arms for Crete Insurgents.
LONDON, July 1.—A vessel has sailed from Smyrna for Crete with arms and ammunition for the insurgents in Crete.

Buenos Ayres Premium on Gold.
BUENOS AYRES, July 1.—The premium on gold to-day is 107.

Mexican Affairs.
CITY OF MEXICO, July 1.—A Central American specialist states that Honduras will make common cause with Guatemala against San Salvador and the latter is seeking an alliance with Nicaragua and Costa Rica. Mexico remains neutral at present, though appealed to.

Guatemala has declared a most rigid censorship over the telegraphic service. The supreme executive power will decide the hardship case to-morrow.

The Government will probably establish larger garrisons on the Northern and Southern frontiers.

Fourth of July at Creve Coeur.
Will be celebrated at the lake with jubilation, music, dancing, boating, picnicking, etc. Missouri Pacific trains will run as follows: Leave Union Depot 6 a. m., 8 a. m., 9 a. m., 10:30 a. m., 11:30 a. m., 1:30 p. m., 2:30 p. m., 4:30 p. m., 6:30 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. Returning, leave the Lake 7:10 a. m., 9:10 a. m., 10:45 a. m., 11:35 a. m., 1:40 p. m., 1:40 p. m., 3 p. m., 6 p. m., 7 p. m., 9 p. m. and 9:30 p. m. Only one boat for the round trip.

A Gasoline Bore.
A gasoline stove exploded in the kitchen of the residence at 2640 Osage street at an early hour yesterday morning and set fire to the woodwork. An alarm was sent in from box 261. The fire damaged the building to the amount of $300. Frank Ford's furniture was damaged to the amount of $200.

A LIVELY CAMPAIGN.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE STATE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE TO-DAY.

Chairman Moffitt and Secretary Walker Resigned.—Arrangements for the Campaign—The Members of the Committee of the State Democratic Majority in November—What They Think of the United States Senatorship and the Outlook for 1892.

The State Democratic Committee is in session in the city to-day organizing and arranging the preliminaries of the State campaign, which will begin tomorrow. When Chairman Moffitt called the meeting to order this morning in the committee rooms in the Temple Building all the Congressional districts were represented, excepting the Seventh, of which George L. Dunn of Kansas is the incumbent. Mayor Noonan of the Eighth District was represented by Thos. Morris and J. D. Tolson of the Sixth District sent his proxy to Secretary Walker, who in turn gave it to Chairman Moffitt of the City Central Committee. The members present were J. H. Carroll, First District; J. H. Fink, Second District; J. B. Thomas, Third; Thos. F. Ryan, Fourth; A. M. Allen, Fifth; C. C. Moffitt, Ninth; W. H. Phelps, Tenth; B. P. Bailey, Eleventh; W. H. Phelps, Twelfth; T. J. Delaney, Thirteenth, and D. J. Allen, Fourteenth. The new members of the committee are T. F. Ryan, A. M. Allen, Geo. T. Dunn, B. P. Bailey and T. J. Delaney. As was expected, the old officers were elected without opposition.

They are: C. C. Moffitt, Chairman; Joseph A. Brown, Treasurer, and H. P. Walker, Secretary. The committee then went into executive session to discuss the matter of securing funds for the conduct of the campaign. This and other matters of the moment kept the committee in session until after 12 o'clock, when a recess was taken until 3 p. m. In the meeting all the members of the committee were present in their respective districts, and offered suggestions to strengthen the weak spots that had been found in the campaign. They also discussed the Presidential outlook, the tariff and silver question, and the United States Senator and other matters under discussion.

The Census Figured—Knights of St. Patrick Excursion—Interesting Items.
An estimate based on the return sheets of the enumerators places the population of Alton at about 11,000, against 8,975, the return of 1880. It is the general impression that the city is at least 1,000 short of what they should be.

Mr. J. T. King died Sunday morning at the family residence in Upper Alton, aged 45 years. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this morning.

A stranger whose name has not been learned was overcome with heat and fell from a car on Saturday morning, and died from his injuries early Sunday morning.

FINISHING TOUCHES.

BRING PUT ON WHAT IS RECOGNIZED BY THE PUBLIC AS A VERY BAD JOB.

The House Containing the Miscellaneous Bill.—The House Containing the Miscellaneous Bill.

The census schedules have been shipped to Washington, but all is not dull and dead around the census office. Maj. Weigel is there, still at work. Many of his ex-enumerators hang around the quarters, looking up the accounts, and little incidents occur now and then which live up to the drill routine. The Mayor has there some assistants who might obtain first-class positions in side shows and be billed as the wild men of Borneo, or sit in a meeting of Anarchists without being distinguished from the rest of the rest of the board by cleanliness or the appearance of intelligence. These freaks furnish amusement to the others who are present, and one of the most interesting of their diversions is to make a wild and mad assault on visitors who call at the office on business.

The chief of this band of Borneo men is a slim, small man whose appearance indicates that he made about 20 cents a day out of his work, and that is the first money he has made for a long time. He has a wild and crazy expression, and a look of a man who would be a leader among them, for he can wear his arms as violently, look as wild and talk just as much nonsense as the best of them.

Judging from experience, his usual method of procedure when he is going to give a mad assault is to begin with a question, "Who are you?" A visitor who was so accented this morning stared at the unfortunate man, supposing of course that he was some poor demented creature who had wandered in there, probably gone crazy over statistics. When the question was repeated the visitor, knowing that the insane must be humored, answered the question, and then the enumerators pointed to the door and said: "You walk right out of here, you crazy fellow."

OFFICIALLY COUNTED.
This strange proceeding of having five people enter the office on business, so continued his work and said nothing. Two others who were present looked on with interest.

After a moment the ex-enumerator again entered the office, and began asking some questions. He was just as fierce and just as mad as the first, and began asking questions. He was just as fierce and just as mad as the first, and began asking questions.
